
About IWREM-2020

September 24-25, 2020, TIIAME, Tashkent, Uzbekistan

The First International Conference on: 'Improving water resources and environmental management in the face of growing uncertainty' (IWREM-2020) is the interdisciplinary forum for life scientists, engineers, and practitioners to present their latest research results, ideas, developments, and applications.

The conference objective is contribute towards the Sustainable development goals through sharing innovative approaches, tools and lessons for protecting water resources and environment, ensuring sustainable development through the adaptation to climate change and combating land degradation that could threaten it. The conference aims achieving sharing experiences and best practices on sustainable agriculture, salinity management including biosaline agriculture practices, resources efficiencies and productivities and water management based on ecosystem services, irrigation modernization, conjunctive use of canal and groundwater, closed loop systems in agriculture and water management.

The IWREM occupies contributions towards the Sustainable Development Goals, including SD1, SD2, SDG 6, SDG 13 and SDG 15.